

WRITTEN EXPLANATION

Outcome 1: Reading and Creating

This written explanation details the decisions you made in creating your written piece. Complete it and attach it to the piece you submit for assessment.

Name: _____ Form: _____

Title of piece: _____

Form: (e.g. letter, internal monologue, conversation, advice column, medical report, diary entry, short story, script/dialogue etc.)

Audience: _____

Point of view (From whose perspective is this piece and why did you choose them? Will you use first, second or third person?):

Purpose: (What did you hope to demonstrate about the character/s in this piece?)

How did you change the style of your language (consider literary techniques here, sentence length, word choice, imagery, simile etc.) to suit your audience, purpose and character?

Which section of the plot/ or theme of (please circle): Waiting / Flexion / Whirlpool did you choose to develop and why?

What strategies did you use for planning, drafting and editing?
